

Oxford Transitional Justice Research

in conjunction with the Centre for Socio-Legal Studies and generously supported by the Planethood Foundation

Seminar Series – Hilary 2010

Mondays, 4:30pm, Seminar Room D, Manor Road Building, Oxford

Week 1 – 18 January

International Justice: Transitional, Distributive, and Rectificatory

Dr. Daniel Butt, Lecturer in Political Theory, University of Bristol

Week 2 – 25 January

Moving Away from the South Africa Model: Amnesties and Prosecutions in the Practice of 40 Truth Commissions

Francesca Pizzutelli, Assistant Legal Adviser, International Justice Project, Amnesty International, and Visiting Scholar in the Centre for Socio-Legal Studies and Oxford Transitional Justice Research

Week 3 – 1 February

Punishment in Transition: Re-thinking the Role of Punishment and Sentencing for Transitional Justice

Professor Ralph Henham, Professor of Criminal Justice, Nottingham Trent University

Week 4 – 8 February

Conflict Prevention and Reconciliation after Mass Atrocity

Dr. Rama Mani, Senior Research Associate, Centre for International Studies, University of Oxford, and Project Director, Ending Mass Atrocities - Echoes in the South

Week 5 – 15 February

A Hard Case: Thinking 'Out of the Box' on Transitional Justice and Reconciliation in Bosnia

Dr. Ioannis Armakolas, ESRC Post-Doctoral Research Fellow, Department of Politics and International Relations, University of Oxford, and Research Fellow at Nuffield College

Week 6 – 22 February (Lecture Theatre, Manor Road Building)

Defending the Damned: The Role of Defence Counsel in International Criminal Cases

Peter Robinson, Legal Advisor for former Bosnian Serb President, Radovan Karadzic, ICTY, and Lead Counsel for former President of the Rwandan National Assembly, Joseph Nzirorera, ICTR

Week 7 – 3 March (Note change of date and time)

(NB: 7pm, Lecture Theatre, Manor Road Building, co-hosted with the African History & Politics Seminar)

Debating Power, Politics and Justice in Post-Genocide Rwanda

Lars Waldorf, Lecturer in Human Rights, Centre for Applied Human Rights, University of York; and Dr. Phil Clark, Foundation Research Fellow in Courts and Public Policy, Centre for Socio-Legal Studies, University of Oxford, and Convenor of Oxford Transitional Justice Research

Week 8 – 8 March

Socio-Economic Rights in the South African Constitutional Court: Is the Honeymoon Over?

Professor Sandra Fredman, Professor of Law, University of Oxford

Bringing Socio-Economic Factors into the Transitional Justice Debate

Dr. Sabine Michalowski, Reader in Law, University of Essex

*For further information, please contact the seminar convenors,
Dr. Phil Clark (philip.clark@csls.ox.ac.uk) or Nicola Palmer (nicola.palmer@law.ox.ac.uk).*